ARMED AND DRUNK.

Testimony at Coroner's Inquest of the Survivor Who Attacked Rangers.

Rio Grande City, Texas, Nov. 9.—The necessity of preserving the lives of citizens against attack from an organized band of men has prevented a full investigation of the Welch assassination. Evidence at hand shows it was unquestionably political. Officers have a clue to the assassin, but are unable to follow it up without bloodshed. Several suspected parties are already in Mexico. It is believed that the attack on the rangers last night was an attempt to delay the investigation further.

The coroner's inquest held today fully confirmed Captain McDonald's account of the attack. The back of the assailant was found with two dead men in it. Another dropped on the road and another managed to jump a fence and died, hiding in a field.

The wounded man, Manuel Ozuna, testified that there was no plan to attack, but all were armed and drunk, and that the shooting was begun by Juan Garcia Perez, who, after hearing Captain McDonald say: "Hold up, there, we are rangers," jumped out of the back, crying, "Come on, boys, kill the ——" and turned loose with his Winchester; that they fired three shots before any were fired by the rangers; that no other parties participated in the attack except himself and the four men killed.

The bodies were handed over by the coroner to relatives for burial. The wounded man was jailed.

There is suppressed excitement among the party to which the assailants belonged and ugly threats were made. It is believed no further trouble will result from the killing, but the presence of a large outside force will be necessary for some time.

It's What's Inside

That gives value to a watch. So it is with Clothes. The part that is hidden is the vital part. The construction is what gives them permanency of fit, style that is characteristic, hang and swing that is graceful, and quality that is lasting. ALFRED BENJAMIN'S CLOTHING is honestly made, inside and out, that's the reason they look well and wear well. Once you wear these Clothes you'll sound their praises as loudly as we do.

MAN HUNG HIMSELF IN THE CITY JAIL

BUT HE DID NOT SUCCEED IN CARRYING OUT HIS WISH TO DIE.—SENT TO BUFFALO.

Last evening the city police took charge of a man who came in No. 4 and who seemed to be in a bad way. The officers thought he was drunk. He was discovered by the conductor in a stupor just before Palestine was reached. If he had a railroad ticket it had been lost. He was looked up in the city jail, and sometime during the night he tried to commit suicide by tearing a blanket into strips and hanging himself to the top of the cell. The strip broke under his weight. A negro woman prisoner in an adjoining cell gave the alarm.

This morning the man was rational, and said he was subject to "spells," that his home was in North Carolina, and that he was on his way to visit a son at Buffalo, Texas, named Charles Fink. The man gave his name as David A. Fink. The son was communicated with over the long distance this morning, and as a result a ticket was purchased for the unfortunate man for that place, and Policeman Guinn saw that he got on the right train. He had a purse containing about $6, part of which was used in buying him a ticket.

MAD DOG SCARE.

Five Tyler Children Are Reported to Have Been Bitten.

Yesterday afternoon Tyler had a genuine mad dog scare, and as a result several citizens are either going or have gone to have children treated for supposed mad dog bites. Five children are reported to have been bitten.

The whole town was up in arms, but up to last accounts the dog had not been killed, though he had bitten several other dogs and others animals in addition to the five children.

Last evening Mr. Joe Brown of Tyler passed through Palestine with his little son, who was bitten, on his way to the Pasteur Institute at Austin. The boy was severely bitten on a hand and foot.

The mad dog took in a large area of the city, and finally disappeared.
